What we do

How does Cypress Financial Planning, LLC protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards (such as password protection or encryption) and restricting access to physical files (such as locked cabinets or building).

How does Cypress Financial Planning, LLC collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account
- Deposit money
- Seek advice about your investments
- Enter into an investment advisory contract
- Provide us with information about your investment or retirement portfolio or earnings

We may also collect your personal information from other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account, I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account – unless you tell us otherwise.
